

Benefits of Being an Affiliate – White Badge Tourist Guide

- To be part of a nationally recognised professional Institute working for excellence in the sector
- To protect your qualification
- To be part of an accepted career structure with opportunities to build on your qualification
- To be able to use the words 'Affiliate of the Institute of Tourist Guiding' discreetly on business stationery (this should be used in full and not abbreviated)
- To receive information about the tourist guiding sector, including the Institute Communiqué (e-mail subscribers)
- To further your career by attending keynote lectures organised by the Institute, for example at the the Annual General Meeting as an observer and by the networking opportunities these offer