MEMBER, ASSOCIATE - CODE OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

- 1. Conduct: I shall maintain the highest level of courtesy, flexibility and collaborative spirit towards clients, colleagues and site staff.
- 2. Standards: I shall uphold the highest standards of quality and professionalism in heritage interpretation and presentation skills. I shall behave professionally and ethically at all times.
- 3. Qualification: I shall not hold myself out to be qualified to guide in areas for which I hold no accredited qualifications.
- 4. Languages: I shall not offer myself for work in languages other than my first language or those for which I have passed the Institute language test.
- 5. Continuing Professional Development: I shall strive at all times to improve the standard of my own work and take the opportunity to expand my range of knowledge and skills wherever possible. I will endeavour to record my CPD in an appropriate portfolio.
- 6. Teaching and Training: should I be invited to tutor practical sessions on any Tourist Guide related training course, I should ideally be in possession of the Institute's Training Certificate. I should aim to ensure that such courses are Institute-accredited, have applied for Institute accreditation or comply with Institute endorsement criteria.
- 7. Environmental Concerns and Sustainable Tourism: I shall try to create awareness in clients and tour organisers/principals alike of environmental and conservation issues in order to avoid damage to any elements of heritage within the area of qualification.
- 8. Punctuality: I shall arrive in good time before the start of any guiding engagement.
- 9. Dress: I shall be smart and presentable at all times and dress appropriately for all engagements.
- 10. Additions and Changes to Tours: should I be requested directly by clients to arrange additions or changes to tours as specified in the organiser's itinerary I will inform the organiser at the earliest available opportunity and not act independently by making arrangements without the organiser's consent.
- 11. Invoicing and Administration: I shall present invoices promptly with clear separation of fees due, expenses and disbursements. All work-related documentation shall be clear and unambiguous including any reference required.
- 12. Breaches of the Institute Codes: in the event of the upholding of a written complaint to the Institute following due investigation as laid down in the Institute Bye-Laws, one or more of the following sanctions prescribed in Institute Bye-Law 15.3 should be applied:
  - a) Admonishment
  - b) Suspension for any period not exceeding one year without refund of subscription
  - c) Expulsion without refund of subscriptionUsers of guiding services and sites may be informed when any of the above steps are taken.
